

St. Matthew's University Academic Scholarship Application

St. Matthew's University offers a partial tuition scholarship to promising candidates in each incoming class. These scholarships can provide a tuition reduction for each of the basic sciences semesters. To be considered for one of these scholarships, you must have a strong undergraduate GPA and/or MCAT/GRE score. The scholarship committee will consider your overall credentials, including your undergraduate performance, letters of reference, personal statement, community involvement and volunteer work.
